PAGE 3: CONTRACT INFORMATION & EMPLOYMENT TERMS

3.1 Standard Working Hours

The standard workweek consists of 40 hours, typically structured as 8 hours per day, Monday through Friday. Core collaboration hours are between 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM local time, during which all employees are expected to be reachable.

3.2 Probationary Period

All new employment contracts are subject to a standard 6-month probationary period.

- Performance evaluations will be conducted at the 3-month and 5-month marks.
- During the probationary period, either party may terminate the employment contract by providing 2 weeks' written notice. Post-probation, the required notice period increases to 2 months.

3.3 Confidentiality and Intellectual Property (IP)

- Non-Disclosure: Employees are strictly prohibited from disclosing proprietary company data, client lists, or internal source code to third parties during or after their tenure.
- IP Assignment: All inventions, software code, designs, and documentation created by the employee during working hours or using company resources are the sole and exclusive intellectual property of Global Enterprise Technologies.

How to use this for your DocCapture prototype testing:

1. Metadata Parsing: Verify if your system extracts the Document ID, Document Owner, and Approval Status accurately.
2. Page Tracking: Query "What is the notice period after probation?" and verify if the system points directly to Page 3.
3. Consistency Auditing: You can deliberately alter the text (e.g., change the submission date on Page 2 to clash with a payroll rule) to see if your Agentic AI flags the contradiction!
